

Tim Erickson – Director

Tim Erickson brings a wealth of experience to the table when it comes to setting up, managing and giving oversight to businesses and charitable organizations.

Tim was co-founder and Administrative Director of Rosebud School of the Arts. His tenure spanned twenty six years, where he developed and governed a post secondary arts institution.

Rosebud Theatre, the largest regional theatre in Alberta, was co-founded by Tim in 1983. He acted as the producer for over twenty years and gave oversight to all areas of operation.

Tim is presently the Board Chairman for the Chemainus Theatre Festival Society. He has been involved with the Chemainus Theatre since its inception and acted as the Executive Director for a number of years.

Throughout his career, Tim has been actively involved in community economic development and revitalization and brings a wealth of excellent inter-personal skills to the team including the ability to motivate people to reach their potential.